

Abstrak

In accordance with the existing problems, the objectives of this study are: First, the researcher wants to explain the qualifications, Christian Education teacher. Second, researchers want to explain what competencies an ideal Christian Education teacher must have. Third, the researcher wants to explain what methods and approaches Jesus used in teaching Samaria women according to John 4: 1-42. The writing method used in this study to obtain the data needed is: The method used by researchers in this study is a qualitative approach, the type of library research is the process of the hermeneutic method, on various data sources or manuscripts that support and correlate with the title, where the Bible is the main source and use the hermeneutic method arranged descriptively to achieve the goals and objectives of writing.

Based on the description of the author in research scientific papers about the profile of Jesus as a teacher in John 4: 1-42. Then found the profile of Jesus as a teacher as follows. Jesus has fulfilled the teacher competency standards in accordance with teacher and lecturer laws and government regulations in accordance with the ideal teacher qualifications in the application of teacher standards today through the method used by Jesus in teaching Samaria women from these teachings. Ideal and set an example especially for today's Christian education teachers.

Keywords: profile, Jesus, teacher

